LB 331, 421

SENATOR MURPHY: This series of amendments was brought to me by Ross Rasmussen who read the bill rather carefully to protect his interest in school board district elections and at large elections and he has suggested that these words be added. They are clarifying only in each section that he refers to. The statement is made that the redistricting shall be done and he wants to make sure that it says in those districts which have approved the motion to redistrict, that the redistricting is done. As I told him, I didn't think the language was particularly necessary but I certainly have no objection to it inasmuch as it simply spells out in detail that these various districts, be they school, county or otherwise have, in fact, redistricted before the mandate to redistrict is visited upon the governing body. I would move the adoption of the amendment.
